

Motivational Invitation Speech

Dear Ladies and Gentlemen!,

We welcome you all for the third year anniversary of Oxford matriculation school. Now we are going to start our anniversary festival. On behalf of our school management, teachers and students, I welcome our chief guest, parents and everyone. I request our principal to give a speech and achievements of our school in the last one year.

I am happy to see that large number of students and parents to participate in our school anniversary. I specially thanks to him to accept our invitation and love to meet all and make participation here. First of all, I would like to announce the achievements of our school in the last one year. We got a first prize in Football competition in district level and our school going to participate in state level competition.

In the last year 10th standard exam, our school made 100% pass out and happy to say that one of the three schools in the district claimed 100% pass out. Our school student Mr.Ashok got 490 out of 500 marks in 10th board exam and he is the first in district level. We are increasing our standard day by day and we are going to be the best and number one school in the upcoming year. I would like to announce the gold medal students for the previous year and I request the students to get the medals from our chief invites.

I wish all the students who got medals this year and I am happy if I give this medals to all of our students in next year. So work hard and study sincerely. Thanks!.

Good evening to my children's!,

Most probably, students are not interested to listen advice from others. So I try to give short and sweet speech to you. When I was studying schools, we don't have a good school in this area. So we have moved to some city and we studied. But fortunate for you, one of the best school available now in this region. I am sure that, this school will come the best in this district. I heard that, its very tough to get admission in this school. Its my pleasure to come here on this beautiful occasion and meet you all.

Its really fascinating for me to spent time with you all. I wonder how they have organized such fantastic function in a short time. Its really a great achievement to get these much greatness in studies, games,
